

1929.

Stockport Co-operative Society's new abattoir opened.—January 19.

Public Stairway constructed to connect Mersey Square with Lawrence Street, opened by the Mayor (Mr. Joshua Preston, J.P.)—August 9.

Belmont Council School, Meal Street, Heaton Norris, formally opened by the Mayor of Stockport (Mr. Joshua Preston, J.P.)—August 30.

1930.

New Christian Science Church at Corbar Road, Mile End, opened.—January 19.

Final Meeting of the Stockport Board of Guardians, the duties having been transferred to the new Public Assistance Committee of the Corporation.—March 31.

New Great Moor Telephone Exchange opened, and 760 Stockport subscribers transferred to that Exchange.—April 1.

New pavilions opened at North Reddish Park and St. Thomas's Recreation Ground.—April 29.

Stockport South Branch of the British Legion's new headquarters at Heaviley House, Buxton Road, opened.—August 2.

Foundation Stones laid of new Trinity Wesleyan Sunday Schools.—October 11.

Extensions to Stockport Cricket Club pavilion formally opened by the Mayor (Mr. Joshua Preston, J.P.)—October 30.

1931.

Parishes of Northenden, Northen Etchells and Baguley became part of Manchester at midnight. The three districts form Wythenshawe Ward.—March 31.

New Roman Catholic Church opened at Hazel Grove.—April 12.

Mr. Thomas Hilderley appointed Registrar of Stockport County Court in succession to the late Mr. L. Hyde.—June 24.

Stockport Hippodrome converted into "Talkie" Theatre.—August 3.

Woodbank Hall opened as a Museum, Reading Room and Meeting Room by Alderman Sir Thomas Rowbotham, J.P., the donor of the Hall and Park.—August 29.

New Trinity Wesleyan Sunday Schools opened by Miss F. Rowbotham, J.P.—September 26.

1932.

Death of the Ven. J. H. Thorpe, B.D., Archdeacon of Macclesfield and Vicar of St. George's, Stockport.—January 7.

Work on the Fernilee Dam of the Goyt Valley Waterworks started.—February 25.